

Student Policies

- Cell Phones, drinks and gum are not permitted in class.
- Please respect your studio and treat it like your home; place all garbage in the trash cans, pick up your belongings, do not wear street shoes in the studio.
- Students will not hang on the barres, touch the mirrors or operate the sound systems.
- Students will not be allowed in any dance studio without a teacher present.
- Please try and make it to class as often as possible. For competitive students, 5 marked absences could result in dismissal from the competitive team.
- The studio is not responsible for any lost or stolen articles. Please leave your valuables at home.
- Spectators are not allowed in class unless invited in by the teacher.
- Make sure to use the washroom before class to not waste valuable class time.
- For safety reasons, no jewellery may be worn in class.
- It is important that students come to class dressed in the proper dance attire (see dress code) so body lines are clearly visible to the instructors. This is necessary for proper instruction. Students who do not come prepared for class in the proper uniform will be asked to change or leave.
- All students must have their hair tied back and off their face for all other classes.
- Students will show the utmost respect for the facility, fellow dancers, parents and staff at all times.
- Everyone has the right to privacy and security, therefore, pictures/videos taken in the studio by students, parents or anyone not employed by Devotion Dance Company may NOT be posted on social media without the expressed permission from the artistic director.
- Bullying will not be tolerated. All dancers will support and encourage each other without making negative remarks.
- Students will not make any negative remarks in regards to teachers, costumes, choreography, choreography placement, dancers or Judges whether they are part of the Devotion Dance Family or another school.
